

Promoting creative power in people with disabilities

VIDEO / PHOTO RELEASE FORM

Your child is currently participating in a VSA Michigan program funded, in part, by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs and the VSA and Accessibility Office of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, DC, through an award from the United States Department of Education. We would like to have your permission to photograph and/or videotape your child while he/she is participating in one of our educational programs. We will be using the video to train artists and educators in the planning and implementation of educational activities in schools and community programs. We would also like permission to use your child's first and/or last names and photograph his/her image, likeness, original artwork, original music and/or creative written work in our online newsletter and in other educational publications that promote the arts in education programs of VSA Michigan.
